Dear MainStreet Partners:

With the rapid changes occurring due to the coronavirus outbreak, I am reaching out to you on behalf of the MainStreet Cleveland board of directors to see how we can assist during these uncertain times.

Please forward any announcements regarding your business, special hours, services, deliveries, or any other information that I can share through social media and email.

Your business/organization impacts our entire community and we will do everything possible to help you sustain during this difficult period. Please let me know how we can help.

Together we will get through this unprecedented time.

Sincerely,

Sharon Marr
