A Classic Christmas

IN CLEVELAND

December 5, 6 & 7

Downtown is the Place to Be.

Friday, Dec. 5th - 6 P.M.
Carols in the City & Lighting of the Community Christmas Tree.

The Community Tree Lighting Festivities begin at the Post Office on Broad Street. Santa Claus will be on hand to light the giant tree beside the front steps.

Reverse Caroling - You're sure to find it a heart warming experience as you enjoy choral performances at historic downtown churches and other key sites. This year's featured performers include... Tennessee Christian Preparatory School choir, First Baptist Church, Broad Street United Methodist, St. Luke's Episcopal, First Presbyterian, First Cumberland Presbyterian and finale by Cleveland State Community College Vocal Rhapsody.

Visit with Santa Claus from 6:15 to 8:00 P.M. in the Bandstand at the Courthouse Plaza. Bring your camera for great photo opportunities.

Downtown Carriage Rides - Enjoy free carriage rides in the historic downtown area until 8:00 P.M.

Saturday, Dec. 6th - 6 P.M.
MainStreet Cleveland's Annual Christmas Parade.

Don't miss one of Cleveland's most popular traditions. The parade departs from Bradley Central High School and travels north on South Lee Highway to 3rd Street, north on Ocoee Street around the monuments, south on Broad Street, right on Inman Street, south on Keith Street and back to the school.

Sunday, Dec. 7th - 3 P.M.
A Classic Christmas Concert.

3:00 P.M. is the time to enjoy the 25th annual Classic Christmas Concert at Lee University's Conn Center. This is a free event but tickets are required. Call 614-8240 for ticket information.
